

Toronto, Ont.—Monument will be raised in honor of Burrell Heacock, 17, who lost his life in attempt to rescue Elbridge Stanton and wife from death in Whirlpool Rapids, February, 1912.

Washington.—Senate and House agreed that all steamers carrying over 50 persons on board must have 24-hour watch in wireless room.

Los Angeles.—Everybody testifying in Darrow trial yesterday made Bert H. Franklin look like the worst liar that has appeared in court in recent years.

Dayton, O.—Democratic state committee selected William E. Finley as chairman.

Washington.—Senate will consider Archbald case today.

San Francisco.—Al Kauffman, heavyweight prizefighter, has been forced to cancel his fight with Charley Miller, set for July 31. Pleurisy.

Oyster Bay.—Roosevelt is still raving about way in which he was robbed at Chicago convention.

San Francisco.—Jennie Crocker, California's richest heiress, became wife of Malcolm Whitman, tennis player, today.

Washington.—Wednesday John Mitchell will be sentenced for contempt of court for his part in Bucks Stove and Range boycott case.

New York.—Warren S. Stone, chief of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, spoke before arbitration commission, appointed to settle trouble between Eastern roads and their engineers.

New York.—Express companies will fight against rates imposed by Interstate Commerce Commission. Say that they would not cover expenses.

Washington.—New pure food decision bars use of copper salt in greening foodstuffs.

Washington.—Rumored that Sen. Cullom will go after seat left vacant by ousting of Lorimer.

Springfield, Ill.—Regulars took first and second places in rifle drills, beating Illinois national guardsmen.

Constantinople.—Grand Vizer in statement announced that Turkish government refused all Italian peace propositions because they were unacceptable.

Jefferson City, Mo.—Secretary of State Roach announced that votes-for-women petition mailed to him did not have enough names to force submission of women's equal suffrage amendment to constitution under initiative and referendum law.

New York.—Billy Papke, Illinois middleweight pugilist, returned from France. Will go back in October when he meets George Carpentier.

Petoskey, Mich.—John Anderson and Lawrence Smith, both Chicago youths, rescued from drowning by Charlevoix lifesavers after launch had become disabled.

Washington.—President Taft cabled congratulations to victorious United States Olympic team at Stockholm.

Aetna, Ind.—Lightning bugs, coming out after thunderstorms, threw thousands of workmen in-